Mr. Sridharanilugan's work has been marked by thoroughness & accuracy & he has, I believe justified the selection made in Sep. 1921 by his industry & diligence, and any favourable consideration that maybe shown to his prayer would be well deserved. I recommend that his out standing work be ~~so~~ treated as count for pension as has been done in the case of Mr. Seshagiri Rao.

Mr Subramiah was given an order by permission of half his pay at retirement.

I am thankful to Government for having confirmed me as Assistant Secretary with effect from the 7th December 1921, and request that the following representation of mine may kindly be placed before them for their favourable consideration.

Formerly the pay of a non-Civil Service Assistant Secretary had been fixed at Rs.300 rising to Rs.500. Before my confirmation as Assistant Secretary my permanent pay was Rs.240, and by confirmation, this has been increased by Rs.10. As I am to retire from the 28th January 1923 and as the duty allowance does not count towards pension, no benefit will accrue to me by this confirmation. In 1919, I very narrowly lost the chance of getting an Assistant Secretary's place; though the order of 1917 threw open two appointments to deserving superintendents. Throughout the whole of my 32 years' service, all in the Secretariat, I have worked hard and discharged my duties zealously, honestly, conscientiously and to the entire satisfaction of my superiors. There are instances in which Members of Council and Secretaries have recorded their appreciation of my work. Till now I have not approached Government with any sort of request.

In consideration of the foregoing circumstances, I request that Government may be pleased to sanction to me an arbitrary pension of half of my salary (Rs.250 + 50). In several cases Government have shown concessions to retiring officers for good work. The precedents precedents mentioned in the appended memo support my case.

For such act of kindness, I shall ever be grateful to Govt.
